范文（123词）：

Dear Chris,

I'm Li Jin from Chenguang High School. I'm thrilled about your lecture and would love it to focus on art, especially Western paintings. This topic fascinates me because it reflects cultural values and history. I'm curious about the evolution of art styles and the stories behind famous artworks.

Art connects cultures, and I believe learning about Western art will deepen our appreciation for global artistic expressions. I'm particularly interested in the Renaissance and impressionism, as they mark significant periods of artistic innovation.

I hope to gain a deeper understanding of Western art's impact on society and its reflections on historical changes. This lecture could inspire us to explore our creative sides further.

Thank you for considering my suggestion.

Yours,

Li Jin

简单版（119词）：

Music connects us, and I believe learning about Western music will help us understand each other better. I'm especially interested in classical music, rock, and how music tells history.

From your lecture, I want to learn about music's role in culture and history. I think this will make us appreciate music more and see how it brings people together.

Thank you for considering my ideas.

范文（131词）：

Dear Editor,

I read in your magazine about a tourist attraction in an ancient city charging $5 for locals and $15 for foreigners. This pricing policy concerns me. I understand wanting to make attractions affordable for locals, but such a significant difference might discourage international visitors, which could harm cultural exchange and the local economy.

A more inclusive pricing strategy could be beneficial. Offering slight discounts for locals or creating special packages for foreign visitors might strike a better balance. This approach could promote a welcoming atmosphere for all visitors, enhancing the site's global appeal and supporting the economy.

I hope my feedback encourages a reconsideration of the pricing policy to foster a more welcoming environment for every visitor, regardless of their origin.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Li Min

简单版（121词）：

Dear Editor,

I read about a place in your magazine where people from there pay $5 to visit, but people from other countries pay $15. I think this is not fair. It might make fewer people from other places want to visit, which is not good for sharing cultures or helping the place make money.

Maybe it's better if everyone pays a bit closer in price. This way, more people can come, enjoy, and learn from each other. Making things a little cheaper for locals is okay, but the big difference now might not be the best idea.
